

ABOUT THE AUTHORS/CONTRIBUTORS

Leonor Magtolis Briones is a Professor at the National College of Public Administration and Governance, University of the Philippines, Diliman. She is the Lead Convenor of Social Watch Philippines. She was the Republic of the Philippines' National Treasurer from 1998 to 2001, and, in concurrent capacity, served as Presidential Adviser for Social Development. She was the speaker at the 2005 Millennium Plus Five Summit during the UN General Assembly on September 14-16, 2005 in New York where she spoke during the Financing for Development (FfD) segment of the summit. She is also one of the eight ambassadors of the W8, a group of eight prominent health and education campaigners from South America, Africa, Europe and South East Asia, who have come together to bring the voice of their communities to the attention of world leaders and the general public. The W8 members came together in 2009 through working with Oxfam International.

Isagani R. Serrano is the President of the Philippine Rural Reconstruction Movement (PRRM); a Co-Convenor of Social Watch Philippines; and Editor of Social Watch Philippines' MDG Midterm (7.7.7) Shadow Report 2007. He has authored many books and articles on the environment and development, poverty, MDGs, climate change, civil society and governance. He has participated in UN summits in the 1990's and 2000's, starting from the Earth Summit in Rio in 1992, and was among the founders of Social Watch following the 1995 UN Social Summit in Copenhagen. More recently he was an invited speaker at the UNGA NGO Hearings on the Millennium Declaration in June 2005, in New York.

Marivic Raquiza has been involved in poverty and social development issues, including gender equality, as an advocate, researcher and writer, at the national and international levels. She lived in Mindanao for three years doing rural development work. She holds an MA from the Institute of Social Studies in The Hague and is currently Assistant Professor at the University of the Philippines - National College of Public Administration and Governance and a Co-Convenor of Social Watch Philippines.

Rene R. Raya is a Co-Convenor of Social Watch Philippines. He is also a member of the Action for Economic Reforms (AER) management collective and also serves as lead policy analyst of the Asia South Pacific Association for Basic and Adult Education (ASPBAE).

Cecilia Soriano is the National Coordinator of the Civil Society Network for Education Reforms (E-Net Philippines), which is a network of more than 150 organizations advocating for quality Education for All.

Ma. Luz Anigan serves as social research coordinator of the Action for Economic Reforms.

Reginaldo Guillen is the National Coordinator of the Global Call to Action Against Poverty in the Philippines.

Mae Buenaventura has a long history of working in the field of human rights and economic policy advocacy. In more recent years, she focused her development work on women and gender, taking part in preparing the 2006 NGO Shadow Report on the Philippine government's compliance with the Convention on the Elimination of all forms of Discrimination Against Women and in many other women's rights-focused activities, when she served as Executive Director of the Women's Legal and Human Rights Bureau, Inc. (WLB) from 2007-2009. She has a master's degree in Women and Development Studies from the University of the Philippines Diliman, which comes to good use in continuing involvements that include the feminist legislative and economic empowerment advocacies pursued by WLB and the Freedom from Debt Coalition Women's Committee.

May-i L. Fabros is a member of WomanHealth Philippines. She works as a freelance communication specialist on the advocacies closest to her heart - women, children, youth, and urban poor rights. She is a staunch believer that everything and anything is possible.

Mercedes Fabros is the Advocacy and Campaign coordinator of WomanHealth Philippines.

Medical Action Group, Inc., (MAG) has been a service-provider to victims of human rights violations since 1982. MAG actively works together with other human rights organizations to promote peoples' access to affordable, accessible and quality medicines.

Rachael O. Morala is the Deputy Managing Director of the La Liga Policy Institute and Project Manager of the "MDG Pathways" project.

Jonathan D. Ronquillo is the Environment Campaigner of the La Liga Policy Institute and the Project Coordinator of the Alternative Budget Initiative - Environment Cluster.

Reagan John Gabriel is the Associate Environment Campaigner of the La Liga Policy Institute and Project Assistant of the Alternative Budget Initiative - Environment Cluster.

Jessica Reyes-Cantos is the Chief of Staff of Representative Lorenzo Tañada III of the 4th District of Quezon Province. She is the President of the Action for Economic Reforms and a Co-Convenor of Social Watch Philippines. Her other NGO involvements include being a Convenor of Rice Watch and Action Network and the East Asia Rice Working Group; and a member of the Fair Trade Alliance.

Jolly S. Lais is among the pioneers of community organizing and development work in the Moro communities in Mindanao and Metro Manila since it started in the 1980's. He is an active campaigner for peace, and human rights and a campaigner against poverty and inequality. He is currently the Secretary General of Assalam Bangsamoro People's Association (ABPA), a UNMC partner in Mindanao for the MDG campaign; Lead Convenor of the Bangsamoro Solidarity (BANGSA) - a lobby network of Moro civil society organizations; Lead Convenor of Kapatiran Action for Progress (KAP); Convening Director of Al Fatihah Foundation, Inc.; and Secretary General of Aksyon ng Mamamayang Nagkakaisa (AMANA).

Mohammad Musib Buat is a lawyer. He is the former chair of the Technical Committee on Moro Islamic Liberation Front (MILF) Peace Panel. He subsequently became a member of the MILF Negotiating Panel during the crafting of the Memorandum of Agreement on Ancestral Domain (MOA-AD) between the Government of the Republic of the Philippines and the Moro Islamic Liberation Front from 1997-2008.